

LAKSHMAN KARUNASENA

FRONTEND DEVELOPER

I perceive myself as a conscientious and methodical individual, exhibiting a strong sense of responsibility towards my work and personal commitments.

I am eagerly anticipating my inaugural work experience within the IT industry, which I believe will provide me with valuable exposure and opportunities for professional growth.

EXPERIENCE

2016 - Present

SELF LEARNER

- I completed the Bachelor of Information Technology program at the University of Colombo School of Computing (UCSC) and achieved a noteworthy 'A-' grade on the individual project, which was accomplished through self-directed learning.
- At present, I am enrolled in a React JS course, which provides a comprehensive understanding of fundamental concepts related to React JS.
- I have honed my skills in various frontend and backend frameworks by engaging with online tutorials and practicing extensively.
